
Multilingual Candidate with International Background
Fluent in English, French and Russian

Education

2012 – 2013 Master's Degree in Law, Economics & Management, University of Burgundy, Dijon, France

- International and French contract law
- Contractual negotiations
- International investments law
- International tax law
- European competition law
- Intellectual property law

2006 – 2011 Master's Degree in Law, Taras Shevchenko University, Kyiv, Ukraine

- Admitted without entrance tests on the basis of high results in national school competition in Law
- Followed subjects: Financial and Bank law, Economics, Succession and Business law, Private and Public Ukrainian and International law
- Final grades in top 10 % of the class

Extra academia studies

Financial analysis:

Corporate Finance, Portfolio Management, Equity Analysis, Fixed Income, Derivatives, Micro- and Macroeconomics, Financial reporting

Experience

Since January 2015

- Freelance translator from French into Russian and Ukrainian:
 - Descriptions of consumer products and services
 - Advertisement booklets for start-ups
- Volunteer translator for a French YouTube educational channel Nota Bene
- Volunteer contributor to computer programming open-source projects

February – August 2014

Full time intern in Transfer Pricing, law firm Taj, Neuilly-sur-Seine, France

- Preparation of Transfer Pricing documentation: analysis of business activities of client companies
- Following of updates on International Tax Law and Transfer Pricing
- Translations of legal information notes from French into English
- Monitoring of Transfer Pricing court decisions

May – September 2013

Full time intern in Transport law, milk ingredients exporter Ingredia, Arras, France

- Preparation of sales agents training on international transport contracts Incoterms 2010
- Customs risks in-house audit: legal evaluation of customs risks and development of risks hierarchy
- Participation in meetings of food companies association ANIA and drawing-up of reports
- Legal and compliance monitoring

September – October 2010

Intern in Litigation, law firm Lex'us, Kyiv, Ukraine

- Drawing-up of documentation for property lease and debt recovery court cases

Language proficiency

Russian, Ukrainian: native languages

English: full professional proficiency, level C2 certified by Cambridge English Assessment

French: full professional proficiency, Master's studies and work in French-speaking environment

Spanish: intermediate

German, Swedish: solid basic knowledge (read, write and talk, close to B1)

Software user / developer skills

Skill	Level
Database management technologies (SQL) MySQL	intermediate
Programming languages Java VBA	advanced solid basic
Office suite software Word Excel PowerPoint LibreOffice	advanced advanced solid basic solid basic
Version control systems Git	advanced
Integrated development environments Workbench, Eclipse, NetBeans, IntelliJ IDEA	advanced
Build tools Maven	intermediate
Unified Modeling Language	solid basic

Leisure

Classic literature, Sports and Science popularisation

References

Sebastien Manciaux: Professor of International investments law at University of Burgundy, France
E-mail: sebastien.manciaux@u-bourgogne.fr, Telephone: + 333 80 39 53 93

Additional references available upon request